

Surprised How Special I Am!

The saddest day of Esther's life was when someone told her that her dad and mom had both died. All of a sudden she was an orphan and all alone. But there was an older cousin who cared about her and adopted her. How could God let this happen? She is now a foster kid, separated from her family, and living in someone else's home. With such a disappointing start to her life, Esther was sure her whole life would just be one big disappointment. She thought she would always be poor. She thought she would always be lonely and sad. She had no idea that God was already planning to make her one of the most famous queens in the whole world. She had no idea how special she was! What about you? Are you thinking your life will be ordinary? God has His eye on you and He has an awesome plan for your life! Esther thought she was ordinary and became a queen. David thought he was ordinary and became a king. We can't wait to see what God is going to do with YOU! Isn't He wonderful?

Thought: God chose you and now you need to choose Him so you can live out His wonderful plan for you.
